Winner Regional Healthcare Center utilizes a combination of online learning and classroom time for our certified nurse aid program. The online course we utilize is "WeCare Online Certified Nurse Aid Training". Hartman's Nursing Assistant Care (second edition) book and workbook are used in conjunction with WeCare Online. Classroom time with the instructor include hours of instruction in basic nursing and personal care skills. Checklists of skills are completed by return demonstration and discussion. WeCare and the classroom hours including skills are completed prior to the student performing any patient services.

I will now be the Program Coordinator as well as the Primary Instructor. I have been employed at Winner Regional Healthcare Center since July, 1993. I am employed in the hospital as a staff nurse, a patient care coordinator and education coordinator. I have successfully completed the "Train The Trainer" course and have recently begun teaching the certified nurse aid class.

Carrie Kocer has been employed at Winner Regional since 6/1998. Carrie is employed in the hospital as a staff nurse and a patient care coordinator.

Julie Hennebold has been employed at Winner Regional since 10/ 1992. Julie is employed in the hospital as a staff nurse, a patient care coordinator and assistant director of patient care services.

Cindy Ishmael is an RN in the long term care center that has previously served as a supplemental staff member for the certified nurse aid program. Cindy has been employed in long term care since 4/2003. She is employed as a staff nurse as well as case manager for long term care.

Vickie Barfuss has been employed at Winner Regional since 12/1992. Vickie is employed as a staff nurse and a case manager as well.

Please contact me if further information is needed.

Sincerely,

Sharon Naasz, RN Education Coordinator
